AGM and Winter Seminar 2017

to be held in the Museum Studies Building, 19 University Road, Leicester, LE1 7RF, 9th December 2017, 11.30–4.30

11.00 Registration
11.30 Annual General Meeting (agenda to be circulated at the meeting)
12.00 Lunch (and opportunity to browse the UH Press bookstall)

Winter Seminar

Animals in Medieval Settlements

1.00 Session 1 chaired by Richard Jones

Sheila Sweetinburgh, University of Kent
‘Seasonal settlers: pig herders in the medieval Kentish dens’

1.45 Zoe Knapp, University of Reading
‘Feast or fast? Changing human-animal relationships in Anglo-Saxon Lyminge’

2.15 Jordan Claridge, LSE
‘Managing milk, making a living: the dairy industry in medieval England’

2.45 Tea and coffee

3.15 Session 2 chaired by Stuart Wrathmell

Kishli Laister-Scott, Cardiff University
‘Place-names and the role of sheep in medieval Gloucestershire’

3.45 Chris Dyer, University of Leicester
‘Housing medieval peasant livestock: new light on a dark corner of settlement studies’

Seminar fee £16.00 (with lunch), £8.00 (without lunch). Payment by cheque (payable to MSRG) with complete slip below to Dr Susan Kilby, University of Leicester, Marc Fitch House, 5 Salisbury Road, Leicester, LE1 7QR; or for online payment: http://shop.le.ac.uk/product-catalogue/events-at-leicester/centre-for-english-local-history

Any enquiries including directions to the venue, please contact Dr Kilby at the above address or by email to sk565@le.ac.uk. All bookings involving lunch must be received by Monday 4th December 2017.

I wish to attend the winter seminar with/without lunch. I enclose a cheque for £……………………

Name…………………… Email address..........................................................................................................................

Address......................................................................................................................................................

Special dietary requirements...........................................................................................................................